| 1. Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) | The IDC is a national development finance institution owned by the South African government set up to promote economic growth and industrial development.

The IDC funds start-up and expand existing businesses within the agro-processing and agriculture sector that plan to create new or expand industrial capacity within the economy, with a minimum funding requirement of R1 million and a maximum of R1 billion.

Multiple funds available offering financial support to start-up businesses needing capital for equipment, working capital, buildings and business expansion.

Start-up businesses: IDC’s maximum funding equates to 60% of the total funding requirement (for start-ups).

Expansion projects: IDC can fund a full expansion if the equity structure at peak is a minimum of 35%. | To be considered for this funding, the following standards apply, but are not limited to:
- Requirements are compliance with international environmental standards.
- Shareholders/owners are expected to make a financial contribution.
- The project/business must exhibit economic merit in terms of profitability and sustainability.
- The IDC does not re-finance fixed assets since its aim is to expand the industrial base.
- Risk-sharing from operating private-sector investment partners is non-negotiable and the shareholders will have to guarantee the funding of shortfalls. | National, Regional and Satellite Offices (by appointment only)

| 2. National Empowerment Fund (NEF) | NEF is a development finance institution (DFIs) and government agency of the Department of Trade and Industry mandated to grow empowerment through their Enterprise Development (ED) Fund. It is a driver and thought-leader in promoting and facilitating black economic participation by providing financial and non-financial support to black empowered businesses. The NEF’s diverse funding schemes are designed to support black entrepreneurs wishing to start new businesses as well as supporting existing black-owned enterprises with expansion capital. Entities can be offered support in a form of a debt, quasi-equity and equity finance products with the funding threshold ranging from a minimum of R250 000 to a maximum of R10 million. | To be considered for this funding, the following standards apply, but are not limited to:
- Funding requirements: Projects must be financially sustainable.
- The business must comply with all relevant laws and regulations.
- There must be operational involvement at the managerial and board levels by black people.
- Minimum percentage of black ownership or interest of 50.1% is a requirement.
- The business must be able to repay NEF funding.
- The business must create a reasonable number of jobs.
- Geographic location of the business is also important with the focus on rural or economically depressed areas encouraged.
- Meaningful black women participation is viewed more favourably.
- Rural and Community Development Projects must have meaningful participation by communities.
- Possibility of co-funding with private or public sector institutions is encouraged in larger projects.
- BEE applicants should be actively involved in the day-to-day operations of the business.
- Technical partners should be actively involved in the day-to-day operations of the business. | National and Provincial Offices
